Abraham Perkins Cogo, Nantucket Sep 12 1825 . Jei, I same short time past weate to my friend John Murried Esqu of your place requesting him to fun nich me with the probable cost of streetype plates for a trank belle the deaft of which was forwarded to have and which has since here returned to me. By information received from Me Merill I find that the plates would east about $ 800 a sum considered too quat to warrant every plates of that kind. You will therefore have the goodness to forward to Baston to the care of Me Wm Lovening po muchant by that place, the following amount of bells of the de nominations annexed, of the usual stereotype form, with duchious to have them conveyed to Nantucket by the first apportunity, As the Bank well go into almation on the 20 of October night, it is niceston that exerteous be made to have the hills how something before that time line it is not descred to have the chicks impulsed outher back of the plates - You will oblige me by returning an answer to this as The name of the Bank. - Busidens of the Mr. Hank Manufacturers & Mellechanies Bank of Nanta eket. _ 10.000, our - 8,000 fines - 2,000 times - 2,500 tevas -1.1500 thus -Nantucket Nov 19 1825. Me Tarker, bashe, I yesterday nic a letter from W. Stevenson No. Pub. " wherein he state that a beli drawn hy me "on William Lovering for for twenty thousand dollars, dated Boston Och 14 1825, al 30 days date in favor of Daniel Jones to ohn 18 Macy a cepted , had been probested for non-payment " his went so much to be regretted, not myself only, but the whole Board of this Bank of which I was the or gaw, most sincerely deplow the ac curence of. The only consolation which they to have, is, that it was owing to circumstancy which could not be controled . -The specie which we ric of Mr Lavering was shipped by the very first vessel which sailed from this place for Boston, after it had been counted. - On consequence of head would which detained that vessel, the whole difficulty has happened - the uessel had sailed be for I ric the notice from the Motary and I presume the whole affair is now adjusted to the satisfiction

Vale parties. - If however that should unhappily, not be the case please lave the goodness to inform me - this Bank being perfectly prepared for the contingency . - Anne Man 1800 Tans very respectfully Vacker Gerrull, leash me William Lowering for. Dear Ju!, young of the 16 Inst is we - and it is with mordinary faling of regul, that it becomes my duty to re by to arletter from you so full of reproach, so full of apparent agony offeling. The curcumstance, which have have given resists it, an not less afflicting, not to me only but to all your friends, than your self forends who for from being wilfully accessory to your injury, would gladly embrace any opportunity to do you dervice - Whatever may be your own views of this matter, the Board of Directory of this Bank, pursued that course, which they thought would be perfectly ratisfac tory to gall - Head they supposed that the funds were absolutely ne cessary to you they would not have been wantering in fermishing them in paper, Then hist exertions were made to send them by water, and but for a concurrence of circumstances, you would have been profseped of the specie previously to the unfortunate & sincerely lament ed went - It is hoped much severely, that the apprehensions of in Jury which runed to fell you mind when you addripted me last have not him realised - may it cannot for a morned be betieved there they have - no seem fice would be considered too great to awest from you such culumities, as to the consequency to the Bank it well he am anxious endeavor, that while we feel perfectly con secons of whight + marly in tentions, it shall receive no injury. a considerable posters of your letter, written under the force of exceled fulling I am not authorised to reply to - Trusting humewer that no origing well before you, the consequences of which well be beyond our four to week, we cannot but hope that the green trut the dry well flourish in spite af accident -. One word for myself - I have conducted in this matter in a manue which leaves without the slightest selfreproach - I have dis charged the duty assigned me precisely as ordered buy uspectfully you at see
